Preached at the Lutheran Church of Our Saviour, Greenville, SC on Sunday July 11th, 2021.

The steadfast love of God, the life of Jesus Christ, and the growth of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

*Last week's Gospel reading concluded with Jesus sending out his disciples in groups of two throughout the villages of Galilee
- proclaiming repentance,
- casting out demons,
- and curing the sick ... all in the name of Jesus Christ.

And while his disciples went forth in mission,
Jesus himself also continued to do the same.

And this evangelic mission, we were told, was turning out to be a success!

The concluding verse we heard read from last week's Gospel passage said:
"So [the disciples] went out and proclaimed that all should repent.
They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick ... and cured them." ...

*Today's reading begins with the Good News of the gospel continuing to be spread throughout the region of Galilee as the Twelve and Jesus persevered in mission. ____

And these reports even made it to the palace of King Herod who wondered, "Who then is this Jesus?" ...

He heard some people say Jesus was the great prophet Elijah who was taken up into heaven in the Lord's chariot of fire and believed would return one day. ...

Other people said Jesus was surely a prophet
- like one of those of days gone by - but he was not necessarily Elijah. ...
And still others said Jesus was John the Baptist raised from the dead. ...

It was this last explanation of who Jesus was believed to be that Herod also accepted as truth ... and feared! ____

*In today's gospel telling, we hear an interlude; a story within a story.

While the mission of the Twelve and Jesus continues in the villages of Galilee,
- and Jesus becomes more and more well-known - Herod thinks back to his execution of John the Baptist. ____

Even though he feared John and knew John was a holy and righteous man, Herod made the mistake of getting drunk at his birthday party and promising this step-daughter anything she wanted.

After consulting with her mother,
she requested the head of John the Baptist on a platter.

And not wanting to be embarrassed in front of his guests,
Herod granted his step-daughter her request. ____

Because Herod lost his head figuratively, John the Baptist lost his head literally!

... And now Herod wondered,
"Has John's spirit returned in this man Jesus to haunt him?"

Herod wondered just what is this mission of Jesus; and how will it affect him. ____

*Now the Bible reading which follows this one begins with the Twelve coming back together to share with Jesus their awesome experience evangelizing to the people of Galilee!

Mark writes: "The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught." ...

Yes, the mission of the Twelve was a success!

This is wonderful news; news meant to be shared with others! ____

Why then does the gospel writer Mark include this depressing story of John the Baptist's death in the middle of it?
Why does he sandwich "John's story" between such an uplifting and successful mission? ...

Well, perhaps it is to remind us that being a missionary of Christ is not always an easy road to travel.

Along the way, we are sure to face opposition.
Along the way, we will face those who do not want us to tell others about Jesus. ____

We can see this in today's society!

The mission in which we are baptized won't always be a stress-free road to follow. ____

*A story was told of actresses Helen Hayes and Mary Martin one day out taking a stroll in Paris.

Mary was wearing a new fashion-designed dress, which she was proud to don.

When all of a sudden, a bird swooped down and dropped a load right on her!
(PLOP!) ...

Helen thought Mary would blow her top.
But Mary turned to Helen and simply said,
"[You know]for some people, [birds] only sing." ...

When it comes to sharing the gospel,
we will have our successes - thanks be to God! ...
But at other times, we will be face difficulties. ____

Remember, Jesus was unwelcomed in his hometown.
Remember, Jesus told his disciples as they went forth:
"If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." ...

Perhaps the writer of the gospel according to Mark included "John's story" because persecutions were taking place within the Church at the time of its writing
- which is believed to be around the year A.D. 70.

Therefore, to include this interlude, gave Mark's readers hope for the future. ____

Whatever the reason may be, I believe Mark inserts the story of John's death as a realistic reminder that not all people will rejoice as we go forth evangelizing in Jesus' name.

Like Mary Martin, we are bound to be pooped upon from time to time. ____

*Nevertheless, in the end, the grace and glory of God will prevail!

The Good News will continue to be shared, because prophets - like you and me - will continue to proclaim it to others! ____

Herod could not silence the proclamation of John the Baptist even though he was killed.

Pilate could not silence the proclamation of Jesus even though he was crucified.

Despite the martyrdom of the apostles and other proclaimers of faith in Jesus Christ, the Good News - the Holy Gospel - continues to be heard:

The Good News that Salvation is ours through Jesus Christ!

The Good News that Christ died upon the Cross to free us from sin and the devil!

The Good News that Christ rose from the grave to free us from death and give us the promise of eternal life!

The Good News that Christ ascended into heaven to prepare a place for us!

And the Good News that Christ will return and take all believers in him to our heavenly home! ____

This is the message we are called to proclaim as Christians

- the message of the Cross:

A message of Repentance and forgiveness!

A message of Healing!

A message of the casting out demons in Jesus' name and experiencing his everlasting peace and calmness! ____

*God's grace enables us to overcome fear and weakness; and go forth in mission!

The Spirit of our Lord will guide us and provide for us the strength we need to speak God's message, even if it is not what some people want to hear. ____

Go! ... Proclaim the message of the Cross!

Boldly tell others about Jesus Christ!

Don't give in to those who try to stifle this good news meant to be shared!

Don't be like Herod who was more interested in saving his face

- from being embarrassed – than doing what was right. ____

Feel the Holy Spirit lead you forth in mission!

Feel the Holy Spirit direct you in doing deeds of love and mercy!

Feel the “Cross of Christ” being lifted over you as you journey in its light! ____

Follow in the train of those who went before you:

Amos, John the Baptist, the Twelve Disciples, the apostle Paul, and many others.

Take up your cross and follow Christ's example of unconditional love.

Don't let the Gospel go unheard!

Don't let others tell us we are not permitted to speak the name of Jesus! ____

The grace of God will fortify you with faith and courage to face your adversaries!

When we leave this worship service today, we are entering the mission field!

You and I have been baptized into the mission of the Church, to skedaddle and proclaim the Gospel! ____

Led by the Holy Spirit, go in peace and serve the Lord!

Proclaim the name of Jesus Christ throughout this world.

Boldly stand up and announce with conviction:

“Jesus Christ is the Son of God!”

“Jesus Christ is the long awaited Messiah!”

“Jesus Christ is our Lord and Savior!”

Thanks be to God!”

Amen.
